Dermatologists of Tomorrow Scholarship

presented by Clinique & SOCSF

Program Overview

The Dermatologists of Tomorrow Scholarship presented by Clinique & SOCSF provides financial support and mentorship to medical students who are underrepresented in medicine (URiM) as they pursue a career in dermatology and apply for dermatology residency programs.

Program Objectives

- To provide financial support for medical students to help support their educational endeavors and expenses incurred when applying to dermatology residency.
- To foster inclusivity in the specialty of dermatology.
- To help boost the number of underrepresented individuals in the field of dermatology.
- To cultivate scholars who not only successfully match into dermatology programs but also develop into future leaders in dermatology.
